Brief Report

Seminar was organized by the commerce Department on 17th February 2017 on the topic "Risk Management solution" by Mr. Atul Joshi & Mrs. Akhila Kamath from academic educational trust Mumbai at 11.30 a.m.

In the current situation with the number of career choices increasing in leaps and bounds, students got confused with and invariably have risks with options they should choose from, where by leading to a wrong choice. He gave broad idea about the various opportunities available after graduation. He said there are 20 parameters for self-evaluation. Every student irrespective of his chosen field runs the risk of messing up his career after graduation. There are different categories :

Excellent category – IIT, European MBA ordinary category focuses on professional courses such as C.A, MPSC, UPSC, Company Secretary, ICWA, PG MBA. Semi ordinary category - MBA in sports, MBA in hospitality, hotel management, real estate, banking etc. Lastly he concluded the session by saying that each one has demand in the market but as per the student's caliber, through these courses a common student can be converted into an expert. After MBA a student can work in multiple industry. The program concluded at 1:15 p.m.
